

Red Cross First Aid session for BABY and CHILD (from birth to puberty)

All delegates who attend must be aged 16 and over

Saturday 11th May 2019

Weston Village Hall 10 am - 2.30 pm

Four and half hours with half hour included for lunch break.

Tea & coffee will be provided, please bring your own lunch with you.

You will receive practical, hands on learning and key skills to help you deal with;

An emergency

Choking baby and child

Unconscious breathing / non breathing (CPR) baby and child

Fever and febrile seizures

Head injury

Burns

Severe allergic reaction

Swallowed something harmful

Bleeding heavily

Nosebleed

Asthma attack

Meningitis

Broken bones, strains and sprains.

This First Aid session is perfect for;

Parents of children all ages (birth to puberty)

Expectant parents

Grandparents

Family members

Babysitters

PLEASE NOTE THIS COURSE DOES NOT MEET WORKPLACE REQUIREMENTS.

You will receive a free first aid workbook full of helpful advice, this can be taken home and used to check and refresh your knowledge.

To book a place please email Sue Nott: susanjnott@gmail.com

This Red Cross First Aid session is paid for by The Heart of Weston so offered free to delegates. Please bare this in mind if you are unable to attend after booking a place, so that someone else can be offered one of the 15 places available.